Coconino County Sheriff's Deputies Investigate a Shooting in Page

Page, AZ- Coconino County Sheriff's Deputies and Detectives are investigating a shooting that occurred in the 200 block of Waheap Dive in the Greenhaven Neighborhood within Coconino County. On December 17, 2009 at 10:22 PM the Sheriff's Office received the report of this shooting and deputies were immediately dispatched to the area. Upon their arrival deputies contacted 24 year old Kyle Klemme outside the residence as he was standing in the middle of North Waheap Drive with a .38 caliber hand gun in his possession.

Deputies entered the residence and found Uriah Charles on a couch with a gunshot wound to his left leg. Charles was treated on scene by Greenhaven Fire Department and Page Fire Department personnel and was transported to the Page Hospital. He was later flown to the Flagstaff Medical Center for treatment of non life threatening injuries.

According to investigating deputies, Mr. Klemme was allegedly involved in a verbal confrontation with 33 year old Uriah Charles that eventually resulted in a physical fight between the two. According to involved parties Mr. Klemme produced the hand gun and allegedly shot Uriah Charles in the left leg. Coconino County Sheriff's Deputies and Detectives are continuing this investigation and no arrests have occurred at this time.
